

The poster is decorated with various autumn-themed illustrations. In the top left, there are orange and red maple leaves and a branch with small brown acorns. The top right features more orange leaves and a branch with small orange berries. The right side is adorned with a cluster of bright orange berries and several brown and orange leaves. The bottom left shows a branch with orange leaves and a small green leaf. The bottom center has a large red maple leaf. The bottom right includes a branch with orange leaves and a small acorn. The background is a light cream color with subtle watercolor-style washes of orange and yellow.
